CENTENARY OF THE

BATTLE OF STONINGTON

Stonington, Conn., Aug. 9.—The one hundred and first anniversary of the battle of Stonington is being commemorated today. The Britishers left their ships August 9, 10 and 11, 1814, and burned a part of the town. The local citizens defended themselves with artillery and guns and drove off the Britishers, but one of the defending party being injured.

BERRY JOHNSON INJURED.

Berry Johnson, a well-known young man of this city, suffered a very painful and perhaps serious injury to his left foot Saturday night when he accidentally caught it in the machinery at the gas and oil well, on which he is working. The foot was badly mashed, but to what extent the member was injured is not yet known. A physician was summoned immediately after the accident and at the last report the patient was resting well. The physician in attendance states that an X-ray examination will be necessary before he can ascertain the extent of the injury.

DR. BUTLER AT BAPTIST CHURCH

Dr. G. B. Butler, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Beaumont, who with Mrs. Butler is visiting in this city, filled the pulpit at the First Baptist Church last night. Dr. Butler was formerly pastor of the church here and his old congregation, as well as many from other denominations, are always glad of the opportunity to hear him again. The church was crowded last night, the music was splendid and the sermon one of great eloquence and power. Dr. Butler is easily among the leading ministers of the State.

COTTON RECEIPTS.

Cotton has been received in the local warehouses this season as follows:

Lawrence warehouse	12
Brick warehouse	3
Union warehouse	2

BUILD CONCRETE STEPS.

T. B. Hubbard has been awarded the contracts for the cement steps in front of all the business houses on the postoffice block on West Anderson street, and for two sets of cement steps on the Wagner building. M. H. James will also build two sets of steps at the corner of his business establishment. Deep excavations in the street improvement made these steps necessary.

Mr. Hubbard has just completed building cement steps in front of the Episcopal Church from the street to the sidewalk.

A. P. TERRELL DEAD.

The Eagle had a long distance telephone message from L. M. Hewitt at Navasota this afternoon, stating that Mr. A. P. Terrell of that city died suddenly at noon today. He had been ill, but was recovering and heart trouble developed and he died in a short time. Mr. Terrell was one of Navasota's most prominent business men—president of the First National Bank, head of a large mercantile firm, Brazos bottom planter, etc. He was well known and had many friends in Bryan.

U. S. Weather Bureau

DAILY WEATHER FORECAST

Office, Dunn & Daly Bldg.

Phone 79

Temperatures at Bryan for the twenty-four hours ending at 3 o'clock this morning—Highest, 98 degrees; lowest, 78 degrees.

Forecast until 7 p. m. Tuesday—Tonight and Tuesday partly cloudy with showers and thunder storms.

Weather Conditions.

There has been but little change in the barometric pressure, although in most sections it is slightly lower. Relatively high pressure prevails over the East, Northwest and North Pacific coast, and shallow depressions are noted over the Canadian Northwest, Southern Plateau and Western Lake region. Local showers occurred over limited areas in the Southwest.

COLORED QUARTET HERE.

A colored quartet, composed of Timothy Johnson, first tenor; James Hardin, second tenor; Richard E. Denson, baritone, and Lacy Johnson, bass, are in the city. They are representing Wiley University, a co-educational institution for negroes at Marshall, Texas. The boys are advertising the school and give concerts in the places visited to defray their expenses. The school they represent has a number of industrial branches in addition to the literary training and is a school of some importance. The boys of the quartet are highly endorsed, and are said by those who have heard them to have splendid voices.

FREE BALL WEDNESDAY NIGHT.

The Eagle has been requested to announce a free ball at Dellwood Park Wednesday night. Holick's orchestra will furnish music. Bathing in the new pool every evening.

PETER MATESKY.

CHARGED WITH ROBBERY.

Will Perry and the Childs, colored, were arrested and placed in jail yesterday afternoon by Deputy Sheriff Battle and Constable Baker, on a charge of robbing Oscar Nixon, colored, at Smetana Saturday night. Perry and Childs are alleged to have waylaid Nixon and after having beaten him searched his pockets, but obtained only $1 for their trouble. The date for their examining trial has not been set.

NEW COTTAGES AT A. & M.
